Chapter 1. Introduction

The web bots have “forecast” a cataclysmic financial crash for October 25, 2009. Before we let that frighten us, let’s remember that Clif High, web-bot developer, is an apocalyptic survivalist, like Dr. Pete Peterson.

He holds that 2012 will lead to an ultimate catastrophe which the people will have to survive by whatever means they can.

This may not be how people who look at 2012 as the beginning of a “Golden Age” regard the situation.

Clif High is biased towards forecasting threats to survival. He probably wouldn’t agree with those of us who say that an order based on scarcity, war, and disharmony is about to make way for an order dedicated to abundance, peace, and harmony.

Here’s what Clif says about his web-bot reading of Internet chatter:

“In running our MOM (model of modelspace) cleanup of the lexicon prior to tuning, it became apparent that an October 25 turn in emotions globally will be dominated by a [lock down/implosion] of the [planetary financial/banking system].

“The data suggests that such things as [currency trading] and [commodities trading] as well as many other [digital trading forms] will be [suspended]. Some will never resume, or if they do, they will be in entirely different forms.

“There may be a [banking lock up] in many countries emanating from the USofA outward. There may be [interbank lock downs] in which [central banks] and [wealth storage clearing houses] will not be able to function.

“There are data sets suggesting that the rapid shift into building tension language on the 25th originates from and is propelled by the [financial system implosion] that then morphs over into [dollar rejected by all] a mere 10/ten days (more or less) later.

“There may be shut downs of all kinds of banking activity within the USofA and the rest of the anglosphere.” (1) [Square brackets in the original.]

How does web-bot technology work? Robert Bast, editor of 2012 News, explains it.

“The technology, originally designed to predict stock market movements, scours the web for chatter on topics, and, when the chatter increases, they take that as a sign that something is due to happen, a sort of global consensus of web topicality.

“Consequently, with all the talk about 2012 as the movie and actual year approach, the ‘web-bots’ have determined that something terrible will occur in Dec 2012. And in doing so, sites like this are reporting the story, which increases the chatter, and feeds the ‘web-bot.’” (2)

By identifying a trend, the web bots induce more people to focus on and talk about it, thereby producing fresh evidence for the trend itself. It can be a self-reinforcing technology.

That makes the web bots a poor source for me to base my assessments on.

Be that as it may, survivalists and ascensionists live at different ends of the spectrum. Survivalists are dedicated to hoarding as much as possible, guarding it with whatever means they have at their disposal, while ascensionists are dedicated to serving the divine plan in love and light, sharing what they have with others.

Survivalists hang on to 3D and ascensionists willingly let it go.

For me, High's latest forecast only moved the date forward by which I planned to review the NESARA literature.

A word on sources before we go. In general, my work has been among channeled messages. Although I am aware of work underway by a variety of terrestrials such as David Wilcock, Steven Greer, Stephen Bassett, Drunvalo Melchizedek, and many, many others, I have chosen to concentrate on channelings, perhaps because of my experience previously in writing the book, New Maps of Heaven, which also drew on the same type of source.

Among the channeled messages, many sources appear to restrict themselves to or specialize in certain topics. For instance, Marlene Swetlishoff's sources appear to concentrate on the energies hitting the Earth – what they are; what their impact is; how we should respond to them; etc. John Smallman's "Saul" appears to concentrate on Ascension – what it will be like; what shifts in our attitudes would serve us; etc.

Three sources form a primary group for the subject of NESARA. They are Suzy Ward's son, Matthew, Mike Quinsey's SaLuSa group, and Sheldan Nidle's Spiritual Hierarchy and Galactic Federation. By necessity, then, I have concentrated on these three.

In response to Clif High, here is a possible baseline of NESARA knowledge to guide us through the turmoil and into the wisdom economy.

You won't read these details in a web-bot account. This is definitely not literature to take to the bunker with you. This is literature that should induce you to throw open the bunker's doors and leave it behind.

Chapter 2. NESARA`s History

As Sheldon Nidle notes, “you are living through a time when most of your major societal institutions are undergoing great systemic collapse, which is in fact a precursor to a series of vast economic, political, and societal reforms.” (1)

These reforms include a radically-new approach to our social and economic life that we know by the name of “NESARA,” an acronym which stands for the “National Economic Security and Reformation Act.”

Originally an act of the American Congress, NESARA is now a term being applied to the global program that promises to bring peace and abundance to Earth.

NESARA has a history which dates back to the Early Middle Ages. Its origins lie in a series of arrangements apparently put in place by four ascended masters, arrangements that were due to mature at the end of the second millennium of the Christian era.

The only account I am aware of that I would rely on comes from Sheldon Nidle’s “Spiritual Hierarchy and Galactic Federation” (SHGF) and dates back to 2003. I have no idea whether what Nidle says is correct or not, but, it being the only account we have, I quote it here.

I suggest that this account in turn be tested against other sources we discover and overturned if found to be defective.

Here then is the history of events leading up to NESARA, according to the SHGF:

“This time will ... be heralded by an infusion of great abundance. This prosperity will be due largely to the endurance of our Earthly Allies and the brilliant strategies set in motion, many centuries ago, by the Ascended Masters Count St Germain, Master Hilarion, Seraphis Bey and Saint Paul the Venetian.

“These Holy Beings were able to bring to this realm a financial and monetary plan whose secret purpose is to enable great abundance to rain down at the appropriate time. Although St Germain is ultimately responsible for its success, each of the Ascended Masters we have mentioned has played a significant role in its present-day preparation.

“Briefly, ... the Ottoman Turks, the Hapsburgs of Austria, the Bourbons of France and the Holy See conspired in the past to create a system of banking and trust that has lasted until this day. It is important, at this point, to be aware that these individuals were part of a vast, global council of Earthly minions whose ultimate overlords were the former Anunnaki, themselves under the influence of the galactic Forces of Darkness.

“For nearly 13 millennia, these dark, hybrid off-worlders controlled your realm. They relinquished that control nearly a decade ago [in the Peace of Anchara, 1995 - (2)].

“The origins of their created Fractional Banking System are revealed in the ancient treasuries of Rome, Persia, India and China, and in the many empires of the New World. The Anunnaki kept a close watch over this financial operation.

“By Europe’s Middle Ages, control of this system had passed to the Pope and a series of allied Monarchs. This group was grievously threatened by the rise of the Ottomans in the Middle East, and by their capture of Constantinople. New arrangements were needed.

“St Paul the Venetian and Seraphis Bey were leaders in negotiating the new Secret Treaties, but only to prepare the way for the final phase of their strategy.

St. Germain carried this out beautifully, with help from the Master Hilarion. The outcome was a World Trust for this realm's Light Workers.

"Funds were to be disbursed with the advent of Christendom's Second Millennium. As that time approached, however, it became increasingly clear that the Cabals who control your world wished to avoid this payout.

"Therefore, a number of former members who left these groups and secretly supported Count St Germain's original intention, devised a way to defeat the secret manipulations of their former dark Cabals.

"This resulted in the rise of our Earthly Allies and an exceedingly complex strategy that took decades to bring to fruition. The process began as a way to ensure that the abundance promised by Count St Germain was actually made available to Earth's Light Workers.

"At first, this amounted to a number of Trusts whose true purpose was kept secret. A few decades later, it concerned the bringing to light of a humanitarian project approved by the IMF. Over time, this led to the emergence of a number of governmental, economic and political coalitions, which were protected by the Ascended Masters.

"They also encouraged Divine intervention by the Galactic Federation of Light. This First Contact mission would be allied, eventually, with those who so courageously had encouraged the disclosure of Count St Germain's World Trust. In 1998, this measure was officially carried into effect by a series of secret agreements promising that the UFO cover-up would cease when these funds were disbursed.

"The outcome of almost a decade of secret conflict waged between this global coalition and Earth's many dark Cabals culminated in the latter part of 2000. The remaining Dark Cabal realized that it was imperative for them to seize the leadership of Earth's last superpower.

“Thus, they developed a policy that resembled a scheme they had employed in Germany during the 1930s [i.e., 9/11, designed to imitate the consequences of the Reichstag Fire]. They hoped that this policy would enable them to block the disbursement of funds. They also hungered to engage in a perpetual war that would allow them to complete the dismantling of this superpower’s Bill of Rights.

“At first, their policy seemed to succeed. However, their spitefulness resulted in a violent reaction that increased our Earthly Allies’ ability to counterbalance the power amassed by these last Cabals. Now, this Coalition has used your Planet’s most recent, illegal war in Iraq as the intolerable, final act that will break this last Cabal’s hold on the reins of power.” (3)

As we see, the War in Iraq was not the cabal’s last stand. It may be that Iraq was as far as the cabal ever got in its quest for a foreign war that would justify more spending on military weapons research, testing, and procurement.

The cabal appears to have harboured thoughts of annexing Canada and Mexico and declaring the Amero the new currency. This project too appears to have been thwarted.

In an apparent continuing shrinkage of their sphere of influence, the cabal now appear to have confined themselves to the continental United States where they are threatening a showdown over swine-flu vaccinations.

Swine flu is a combination of swine, avian and human flu that is not found in nature. The likelihood is that it was prepared in cabal-controlled laboratories.

There are reports of military drills which raise the spectre in some people’s minds of martial law being proclaimed and vaccine refusers being sent to FEMA camps. (4)

Elsewhere I have cited Matthew Ward as saying that the galactics have neutralized the vaccine and deprogrammed the microchips contained in it. (5) Matthew has also said that martial law and FEMA-camp confinement will not be allowed. (6)

This then is the historical background of NESARA, down to the current standoff between the Light and the dark. We know that a financial crash is coming, but we also know that the “Earth allies” are waiting in the wings to usher in NESARA as soon as the dark cabal’s financial empire is finally destroyed.

And: “Just as in the previous flu situations, the technology of our universal family has neutralized the swine flu virus-laden vaccines and will continue to do so as long as the makers persist in their scheme. Chapter 3. Recent Times

Sheldan Nidle offered us an historical account of the arrangements which became known as NESARA, going back to the Early Middle Ages.

Matthew Ward gives us a snapshot of today’s state of the struggle between Light and dark, written the same year that Nidle provided his historical account. Matthew has on occasion asked his mother, Suzy Ward, to reprint this seminal message.

Looking forward from 2003, Matthew thought it unlikely that NESARA would be declared any time soon. He predicted more karmic completion before its inauguration.

“When my mother first was asked for my viewpoint on NESARA, over a year and a half past in Earth counting, I confirmed its validity and the great benefits of its provisions and I said that their implementation was not imminent.

“There was limited action in the field of potential then and nothing registered there indicated that sufficient energy was being generated by the combined on- and off-planet light forces so that NESARA would be announced any time ‘soon.’

“A great deal of planetary and individual karmic balancing still had to be played out, and by Creator’s law, souls’ free will must be respected except in the case of nuclear detonations in space. That includes the free-will choices made by members of the dark forces to hold up and weaken—preferably doom—NESARA.” (1)

According to Matthew, the dark forces remained in control of the top rungs of all human institutions.

“The [Illuminati's] tentacles reach the highest levels of governments; banking establishments; all media outlets; churches; multinational corporations; royal families; educational, medical and drug, law and justice systems – NOTHING of influential nature on your planet is free of Illuminati control.” (2)

Matthew describes their stake in the matter:

“This powerful cabal has long recognized that to retain their control of Earth’s people, they must keep them in ignorance and fear and for millennia that has worked well for those currently in power and their dark predecessors. Now they are realizing that it cannot work for them much longer, and they are sparing no tactic to hold onto their fast-ebbing control.

“They rightly see NESARA as their total uprooting, because once the program’s reforms are implemented, the control of the darkness will crumble totally.” (3)

The galactics not only deal with the dark meticulously, but with the people and with lightworkers as well.

The need for impeccability ripples down to offering their assistance to the judges on the International Court of Justice at The Hague without forcing themselves upon them. Until a divine deadline is reached, the galactics can only respond where their help is requested.

“NESARA is legislation of the United States government that was designed by high light beings in conjunction with spiritual beings on the planet as the LEGAL means to usher in the era of peace, love and harmony on Earth. ...

“This legislation’s far-reaching provisions were meticulously crafted to encompass all of the complex steps required to usher in that era with the most orderly changes, and this includes the exact legal steps that must be followed. Abiding by laws on Earth is mandatory because it is YOUR world that is affected!

“The International Court of Justice is responsible to serve all nations on Earth, which means that the judges must consider all nations’ submitted opinions regarding issues that affect them. Regarding NESARA, they have been doing this by considering the validity of all petitions submitted within proscribed timeframes as well as following all other pertinent legal requirements of the legislation.

“Obviously, no Earth government’s legislation includes a provision to ask extraterrestrial light beings for assistance if needed! The Judges do know of this standing offer by spiritually and technologically advanced civilizations because light representatives have been in contact with them as well as with many people who are spearheading the NESARA program.

“What is at stake here is [that] this assistance that has been available all along must be requested – it cannot be automatically given. If it were to simply arrive, that would be in effect extraterrestrials taking over YOUR prerogative to manifest the provisions of NESARA, and however monumentally benevolent those are, it’s against the law of the universe for any civilization to provide assistance without being invited.

“Although what happens on Earth affects the universe, the free will law of the Creator is what governs above all, and it is YOUR free will that is at issue here. It is YOUR desires for your world that must be expressed, and the increase in the desires for NESARA’s announcement have been bringing that event closer.” (4)

We can see that the galactics are not trying to foster an impression that they have somehow taken over. Matthew explains.

“The NESARA legislation is being processed within the laws of the God-inspired original US constitution. It is important that you understand [that] this is not a take-over by ETs to initiate the light in these programs, however desperately needed by Earth. In collaboration with wise, just and highly-spiritual Earth humans, ETs are helping in myriad ways to restore health to your planet.” (5)

NESARA will shift control from the Illuminati to the people.

“All of their control will crumble with the implementation of NESARA. Thus they are fighting with all the power they can muster to prevent your awareness of the truth of NESARA as well as to prevent its announcement, which must precede its implementation.” (6)

The dark forces can only delay NESARA; they cannot stop it. To delay it, Matthew reports, they have assassinated leaders and threatened lightworkers.

“The dark forces are fighting tooth and nail to prevent even the awareness of NESARA, much less its implementation....

“They have been successful thus far in achieving delays by many means: assassinations of influential people who favor initiating the provisions without delay as well as others actively working toward this end; death threats to the families of light workers and to the workers themselves; double-agents within the ranks of the light workers; and terrorist assaults.

“The US internal terrorist act of September 11, 2001 [i.e., 9/11] was the most dramatic of these tactics. The laboratory-produced SARS disease was meant to be another global fear instigator, but its effects were greatly reduced by efforts of light workers.” (7)

Let's move away from Matthew's account now and turn again to Sheldon Nidle's SHGF and Mike Quinsey's group. These sources reassure us that, despite what looks like chaos happening around us, the galactics know what is occurring and have the situation well in hand.

In the remaining days before NESARA is announced and First Contact occurs, the SHGF says it does not anticipate a need for rapid deployment of their forces. They state that “until the mass landing date, we will need to intercede only when necessary to prevent nuclear disaster or stop events from getting out of hand. By this we mean an event that swiftly escalates into something serious.” (8)

Diane of Sirius assures us that the galactics are well “abreast of what is taking place, and have a total picture of the likely outcome of the impetus created by you. ... We are ready to seize control on your behalf as soon as it is practical to do so and prevent any madcap actions by the dark as they contemplate defeat. We know exactly how they think and will curtail any attempts to prevent the Light from manifesting on your world.” (9)

I would think “madcap actions” would include imposing martial law and detaining vaccine refusers en masse.

In his Oct. 8, 2009 update, SaLuSa intimates that, if the cabal asks troops to aim their weapons at Americans, it could very well happen that the troops lay them down instead.

“It is a critical time for the servants of darkness, as there is disarray amongst them with less enthusiasm for the tasks at hand. It is known that there could come an occasion, when they may have to point their weapons at their own kind and for many that is unacceptable.” (10)

This has been an up-to-the-minute report on the struggle between the Light and the dark with NESARA as our main focus.

In the course of it, we have heard one group repeatedly mentioned whose work receives little direct attention because it is all done in secret. We heard Matthew say that they were “wise, just and highly-spiritual Earth humans.” (11)

This group is known as the “Earth allies.” Who are they and what role do they play in NESARA?

Chapter 4. Earth Allies

The team on the ground pushing against the cabal is known to SaLuSa and his group simply and cryptically as “our allies” and to Sheldan Nidle’s Spiritual Hierarchy and Galactic Federation (SHGF) as “our Earth allies.”

I believe that they are the same group described in other contexts as “Faction 3” and the “white knights.”

A veil of secrecy surrounds them. Diane of Sirius says that “we talk of the importance of our allies and you ask who are they, but we are not at liberty to give names.” (1) Their operations are similarly secret. Says Diane: “We cannot let out details, as the dark forces will seek ways of foiling the introduction of new policies.” (2)

Atmos of Sirius explains that “secrecy ... is an important part of our strategy to keep ahead of the dark forces. It becomes vital that most of our plans and support from our allies are covert operations, as our progress may be deliberately delayed.” (3)

The danger is real, as SaLuSa explains: “The dark Ones know we give our protection to those who are our allies, but they still try to ‘kill off’ those who are brave enough to openly walk their truth.” (4)

We heard Matthew Ward confirm this risk in the last chapter:

“[The dark] have been successful thus far in achieving delays by many means: assassinations of influential people who favor initiating the provisions without delay as well as others actively working toward this end...” (5)

The Earth allies are those who are “actively working towards this end.”

Speaking particularly of NESARA, the SHGF informs us that the “new monetary and financial system ... lies at the heart of the Earth allies’ mission. A broad-based, international alliance has formed, which is helping our Earth allies to edge forward against the last cabal.” (6)

They are guided in their struggle by the ascended masters and galactics. They block the Illuminati at every step. One of the actions the galactics will mention is that the Earth allies retrieve what the SHGF call “the illegal ‘swag’ [the dark] absconds with,” which pays for Illuminati black operations. (7)

“Our liaisons are quick to reveal where the money went and how to grab it back again. These games ... give the dark time to keep its global tyranny going and to find a possible way out of its overwhelming dilemma: us!” (8)

The galactics give no thought to failure. While the Illuminati “want to crush our Earth allies and force us to abandon [our] mission ... this objective is a pipe dream! The momentum of the divine plan in this realm forever negates any possibility of these dark dreams coming to fruition!” (9)

The SHGF calls the allies “the special way-showers to a new reality” (10) and “the main agent[s] of change.” (11) They are carrying out “an all-encompassing, global ‘house-cleaning’ of the dark and its myriad cronies.” They are the “new ‘brooms’ of the Light” who will sweep out the cabal and disinfect the house. “What is left is to arrest [the cabal] openly and distribute to the worthy the vast prosperity long promised to them by the Light.” (12)

To develop NESARA and all the arrangements that support and extend it, the Earth allies had to come up with radically-new formulations. Little or nothing from the past could be brought forward. Says Sheldan Nidle:

“They had to move well beyond the cutting-edge thinking that was being brought to bear on your now distressed legal, financial, and political systems.

“They knew they had to think well outside the conventional ‘box’ in order to come up with something befitting the new context. They threw out the economic philosophies which created the ‘crimes’ that left the majority of your global populace prey to the excesses of your rich and powerful.

“They needed to come up with systems that not only reformed your world’s institutions but that offered an entirely different way of moving your global society out of the social control mechanisms that cripple your lives. Many of their proposals have since become sequestered laws that now await unveiling.” (13)

Echoing Einstein, the SHGF explained that “the thinking required for repairing this level of damage cannot stem from the discredited philosophies which got you into this mess in the first place; wholly novel approaches must not only mend the damage but also allow the emergence of a very different worldview.

“It is this that our Earth allies courageously champion. ...

“At present, all this is just below the radar, waiting to come into view. Those in charge swamp your world with corruption, deceit, and betrayal that is frightful to watch. This all needs to be expunged, followed by a new direction kick-started by Heaven’s abundance.” (14)

The SHGF reminds us that NESARA itself contains only part of the allies’ ideas. “The ‘total package’ of the allies goes far beyond the provisions of that most commendable document.” (15)

Who stands behind them? Who gives them their power?

SaLuSa says that the allies “are working directly with the Galactic Federation.” (16)
The galactics “can and will overshadow our allies if necessary, to direct the outcome in a beneficial way to you all. This is vital where your military are concerned. ... Our presence is the controlling force that operates from a distance to keep you heading towards Ascension.” (17)

Undoubtedly the Earth allies could not have won the victory without the galactics' help: "It will take our presence to support those dear souls that will lead the way, as the opposition to change will be strong." (18) Total victory awaits the galactics' arrival in First Contact: "Once we arrive [the allies] will come to the forefront and a ... movement will be started ... that will gradually cover the whole world." (19)

In April of 2009, Diane of Sirius predicted that the chaos on Earth "will continue ... for many months. ... It may seem that all attempts to overcome the problems are doomed to fail, but that is because there is no real appreciation of what is to take its place. We have that within our hands and our allies will manoeuvre themselves into such positions that their influence is felt." (20)

When the main events begin to occur, "be assured that many lighted souls ... wait their opportunity to move out of the shadows and support those Dear Ones who have taken up the responsibility for world-shaking changes [i.e., the allies]." These lighted ones are rumored to include the wise sages who began all the world's religions. "Behind them are our own personnel who will protect them in their time of [emergency]." (21)

This is as much as we are told of the noble army of men and women who have risked their lives to stop the dark cabal. It is they who are fighting on our behalf, protected by the galactics and the ascended masters, championing the plan known as NESARA.

To what end? What benefits will NESARA provide?

Chapter 5. NESARA`s Benefits

Before we turn to the impact of NESARA, we need to note that no one up to this point has said exactly what NESARA mandates. No copy of the NESARA legislation that I am aware of is available to the general public.

This whole discussion appears to stem from channeled messages (or intuition) and the messages do not discuss what the legislation specifically stipulates.

There was once a rumour that a gag order existed around NESARA and that the Supreme Court would execute anyone who made NESARA's provisions known.

Seeming extremely improbable to me, I asked Suzy Ward for verification of these statements and, in correspondence now lost to me through a computer crash, Matthew responded that any executions carried out were done by the Illuminati, not an American court.

Matthew said that the Illuminati would execute someone who was promoting NESARA and then say that the Court had ordered it because the person broke the so-called gag rule.

The total mission that the spiritual hierarchy and their galactic allies embarked on could not have been accomplished, Matthew says, by merely giving spiritual guidance. The needs of the population, many of them in Third-World countries living in slave conditions, needed to be seen to first and hence the need for NESARA.

“When people are severely oppressed by political and economic conditions that foster impoverished living circumstances, lack of health care and education, monopoly of natural resources, slave labor, unjust laws and courts, starvation, and tyrannical regimes, offering 'soul food' isn't enough.

"When people are preoccupied with mere survival requirements, giving them only spiritual messages is not going to bring about the global reforms they need to rise out of their misery.

"That is why the provisions of NESARA are monumental in scope, embodying sweeping reforms for Earth that will begin as soon as the legislation is officially announced. When people become aware of the reforms, they will be motivated to participate according to their capabilities." (1)

As soon as opposition from American leaders is overcome, these reforms will be announced. Says the SHGF:

"Then a range of transformative measures immediately go into effect worldwide. These include: the new pro-Basil III banking system, a new hard currency system, a number of new central banks, and global debt forgiveness." (2)

This new abundance will be accompanied by the release of new technology which is largely beyond imagination. Says the SHGF:

"New 'miracle' technologies will give each household the ability to provide its own food, clothing, and furniture. This eliminates the need for farms, factories, and other staples of your present economy.

"A slush of wonderful new technologies is to transform how your society operates. Your cities and suburbs will be rebuilt. Vast greenbelts will replace your farms and factories, giving a miraculous face-lift to your environment! This will be the prelude to the announcements that end the cover-up of our benevolent existence." (3)

"This new abundant realm [created by NESARA] is merely the 'baby-steps' for the events that form the prelude to first contact. Among these are many disclosures of long-suppressed technologies. These can greatly reduce pollution; cast you into a new computer age; and end your reliance on fossil-fuel propulsion systems.” (4)

Of the process disclosure forms a part of, the SHGF say:

“The first step of this process addresses the UFO cover-up and introduces the public to the amazing technologies developed over the past six decades by your major governments. We shall request that these devices, long in use in many covert bases, be disclosed.

“These disclosures form a preamble to the formal broadcast about this first contact mission. Over the past few decades we have groomed a number of individuals and governments to proclaim our presence.

“Then, at the right time, the Galactic Federation and this mission in particular are to be made known to you. The disclosure that you are not alone and that a great deal of secret technology exists needs to be revealed in digestible bites.” (5)

According to David Wilcock, the Obama administration has already purchased two hours of air time to make disclosure before the end of 2009. (6)

Disclosure and NESARA will usher in an era of world peace to a borderless planet. The 2012 Ascension Team will introduce the new technology, revolutionize health care, terraform the Earth, remould the United Nations, and make many other universally-beneficial changes.

SaLuSa tells us that NESARA will bring “sufficient for your needs [and] a happier and more contented society [will be] created.”

“Jealousy and envy [will be] eliminated and even greed becomes unnecessary, and would certainly be discouraged. Your present times are the result of deliberate plans by the Illuminati, to create friction through lack and make you reliant on them for your existence.” (7) Now both lack and dependence will end.

Following the return of happiness to human life, says Ag-Agria of Sirius, “the promise of a new world will become tangible and it will galvanise others into action. A coming together will gather momentum, and great strides will be made” in all areas of global and personal endeavor. (8)

We will be released from the tedium of unfulfilling work.

“Time will be yours to follow exactly what you desire and life is therefore much more fulfilling. Having to toil for a living will be behind you, as you will be able to use your power of creation to cater for all of your needs.

“Nevertheless, your needs are little as in your new lighter body you have the ability to live almost entirely from the energy of Light. You will come and go from your home planet as you require and use various modes of transport freely available. Life becomes a glorious adventure as you move around unfettered and free from restriction.” (9)

Poverty will end on the planet. Says SaLuSa:

“So many of you are experiencing difficulties in your lives that the Abundance Programs would help. I want to tell you that, in the near future, poverty will be eradicated from Earth, and the wealth mainly secreted away by the Illuminati will be reclaimed and redistributed for the good of all. Financial Institutions will be remodelled to cater for a new society that has set greed and corruption aside.” (10)

Archangel Michael describes the way that the notion of money has been used to enslave us.

“You have come to see that you are not slaves to that system called ‘money,’ but that you are always supported and your needs are always met when you assume your Mastery and trust in the Divine Light of Source to create and manifest what is needed to support your life.

“It has been a powerful illusion that ‘money’ is what creates security, and, Beloved Ones, you have worked hard to free yourselves from that illusion and to see that it is the Flow of Divine Love and Abundance that sustains your needs and that money is merely a symbol of exchange in this process.

“But that symbol of exchange was manipulated to become so powerful that it was able to imprison you in a belief that you were slaves of this method of exchange and that you needed to trade your lives to gain enough to survive.

“Now, as emerging Masters of Light, you are taking back your power to manifest whatever it is that you need in any way through your power to transmute Light into Matter through desire and passion from the Heart.

“You will, indeed, continue to co-create together within the framework of an ‘economy,’ but the New Earth economy [i.e., NESARA] will vibrate with passion, enthusiasm, ideas, and playful Masters manifesting their dreams and desires to be celebrated and shared with all.

“The ‘slavery’ of the old system will fall away as individuals find their passion and their ability to ignite passion into abundant manifestation, which is your birthright on this beautiful Planet.” (11)

According to the SHGF, the transformation in consciousness that disclosure and NESARA will start will culminate in Ascension:

“A new paradigm is forming in many of your areas of study, like the natural and social sciences, which is to move you beyond your traditional understanding of economics, physics, and religion. These new ‘brush-strokes’ are to paint a very different, more vibrant picture of how you see yourselves and your societies.

“As a result, a new definition of consciousness will begin to coalesce at around the time that first contact takes place. A magnificent new world is waiting to emerge and present you with very new, stimulating, and positive experiences. ...

“Before you is the completion of your journey through limited consciousness.
Then the focus turns toward ascension and your return to full consciousness!”
(12)

Thus our society is destined to pass from lack to sufficiency, from economic inequality to equality. With new technologies bringing abundance, the use of money will eventually subside and disappear. The planet’s population will live in comfort and happiness, once the new arrangements are unveiled. The people will have what they need to turn their attention to Ascension.

Where will the new arrangements be unveiled? Only in the United States? Who else will share in NESARA and will NESARA be permanent?

Chapter 6. NESARA`s Range

The 2012 Ascension Team look upon the United States as the world’s leading nation in many social and economic areas. Matthew Ward says:

“Because the United States determines to such a large extent what happens in your world, NESARA was devised in accordance with US laws rather than any other country’s.” (1)

Many readers outside the United States want to know if NESARA applies to them as well. Ker-on of Venus reassures us that “everything that applies to the US applies globally insofar as the light initiating changes from ‘bad’ to ‘good’ in all conceivable ways.

“Once again we see so much suffering in what you call your Third World, but in time there will be One World where equality and sharing will ensure that no one is treated as a lesser Being.

“The divisions that have been deliberately placed between you will be removed, and eventually not even language will be a barrier. We have devices that can overcome such problems until a future time when telepathic communication will become commonplace.” (2)

Changes like “justice and freedom ... will travel worldwide and all of your civilization will eventually benefit,” he says. (3)

The celestial sources speaking through Patricia Diane Cota-Robles also remind us that NESARA means global freedom from manipulation and slavery.

“For aeons of time, our monetary system has been used to manipulate, control, dominate, and abuse the peoples of the world. ...

“[But] too many people have awakened, and as a result of this monumental shift of consciousness, the Light of God has reclaimed this Earth. ...

“Fortunately, there are also people in positions of power who are very aware of what is taking place. These enlightened souls are co-creating a new monetary system. This system will be based in integrity, generosity, fairness, compassion, and the highest good for all concerned.” (4)

Matthew Ward offers similarly reassures us that the changes include all people on Earth:

“Readers living outside the United States want to know how their own countries will fare. They decry their leaders’ actions that are against their countries’ constitutions; or despair at prevailing conditions of poverty, disease and starvation; or express grave concern about the plight of the masses of refugees; or ask when their despotic rulers will be replaced. To these dear souls, I say [that] benevolent changes are coming throughout the world.” (5)

Matthew considered the American election to be of undeniable importance, but “foment leading to benevolent changes in other countries’ governments is of paramount significance too.”

“The myriad reforms underway span the globe—WORLD transformation is what is occurring—and in time, every leader in every nation will be a lighted soul.” (6)

He assures us that “you will greet with elation your world when borders and citizenship pale by comparison with the peaceful and harmonious cooperation agreed upon by all peoples everywhere.” (7)

Sheldan Nidle's sources say that a majority of the global population now supports radical new measures because of "the urgency of the economic meltdown. ... What is needed is to implement these on a massive, global scale."

"They are to start in North America only because this land is both the source and the solution for what presently ails your world. America was put into this position by the Dumbarton Oaks Treaties executed near the end of WW II and by America's decades of gross negligence in caring for her own grand responsibilities. These facts make her the focal point for the extensive change envisioned by our Earth allies and us." (8)

Until that system is in place, Matthew captures the frustration of having to watch the needless suffering of people around the globe. He reminds us that every moment of delay in accepting offers to implement NESARA perpetuates the intense suffering of Earth's people.

"For us to see the desperation of billions of our beloved souls and to know that the divine help that can relieve that suffering is NOT being requested is heartbreaking. The masses whose way of life is endemic disease, starvation, slave labor and brutal rulers is NOT all perfect, it is NOT all in divine order! ...

"For most in these masses, karmic completion has been surpassed, and the 'divine order' – which is their RELEASE from those conditions! – has been delayed by the free will of the Illuminati who retain control over these lives.

"The soul agreements of the most powerful Illuminati call for relinquishing their control and joining the ranks of the light beings to share the world's resources, to end wars and violence, corruption and deceit and tyranny. But they have knowledgeably and willfully refused to honor their agreements and have refused the abundance of light constantly beamed to them." (9)

Is NESARA permanent? No, it's not. It's planned to be a temporary measure. Says the SHGF, "even these unprecedented reforms merely constitute a transitional phase that can facilitate the advent of first contact.” (10) Ultimately, SaLuSa agrees, “you [will] reach a stage where money has no place in a society that is founded upon sharing.” (11)

Matthew explains that “eventually this abundance is to outgrow the need for money as a survival mechanism. ... All [these interim arrangements] will come under the rubric of a new multinational financial system which forms a much-needed stopgap between the present financial morass and a new comprehensive system of abundance.” (12)

What is to start in the US is to span the globe. Borders will cease. Wars will end. Equality and abundance will be accorded to everyone in a new prosperity program that will prepare us for First Contact and Ascension.

But what of the time between now and then? Can a broken-down system be repaired?

Chapter 7. Economic Meltdown

Some believe that the broken economy can be fixed. But Matthew Ward is not one of them. He says:

“The continuing lies and manipulation of all facets of money-changing are keeping afloat the illusion that what was broken is being fixed. No, what is broken is irremediable. To the Illuminati, this spells The End, and to all who are enlightened, it spells The Beginning.” (1)

The SHGF agree:

“Attempting to bolster the current mess is futile; your fatally-flawed governance has reached a point where it must return to its democratic principles and then expand upon them.

“The powerful deadwood and allied special interests that run your governments need to be removed. This is no time for ‘more of same.’ This is why we have supported the vast and sweeping new system proposed by our Earth allies. Its implementation is going to rock the world!” (2)

Before the new economic system can be firmly established, Matthew warns, “a stormy period must be weathered.”

“It is necessary to sweep away the crumbled, corrupt foundation before a new basis for banking, commerce and fair allocation of the world’s natural wealth can be solidly built. Some of your most astute and courageous economists are saying the same, as well as what we mentioned some years ago—the United States is bankrupt, and when its economic collapse comes, and it soon shall, the fallout will be felt around the world.” (3)

According to Ker-On of Venus as well, we have still to go through “unsettled times.” (4)

“Fear of job loss, of losing your property, or [of] poverty are real enough, but it is unavoidable if you are to self-determine your own future. The old paradigm has proved inadequate for your needs and has shown the extent to which you have been deceived.

“There is now a shaking out of the old and it will inevitably result in hardships to many people.”(5)

The SHGF considers it “a time for cleansing your world on multiple levels as she prepares for what is about to supersede your present reality.” (6)

SaLuSa tells us that ” you cannot go back to the old ways, as these are defunct and a totally new money system is required. ... The cleansing has got under way.” (7)

He invites us to see what is occurring as evidence of the coming of a new epoch.

“The suddenness of changes so far should convince you that you are really facing the beginning of a new era, which is quite remarkable bearing in mind that just a few years ago the dark forces were in control. ...

“Clearly there is a lot of cleaning up to do, but first the hiding places of the dark need to be opened up to public scrutiny. It is important that you come to know the truth, as in the bigger picture there is a lesson for Humanity.” (8)

SaLuSa reassures us that the galactics understand “the fear generated on Earth because of the situation you are going through. ... There is muddle and confusion all around as the old collapses.” (9)

He reveals that the turmoil must be borne because “it is still a time when much Karma is being cleared, so it must be allowed in the interests of all concerned.” (10)

Atmos of Sirius reminds us that the galactics normally cannot interfere in karmic matters:

“We must reiterate that we cannot just ... intervene in matters that have been karmically brought about by you. You are the creators of your experiences and it is not for another to take them away as lessons are clearly meant to be learnt. You would not evolve if you did not experience the results of your thoughts and actions.”

Karma notwithstanding, a special dispensation will be allowed those who turn to the Light. “With the closing of the cycle,” Atmos says, “the Law of Grace comes into operation, and the Creator has decreed that those who are of the Light shall be released from their remaining karma.

“Many a life at this time has been planned as a final thrust to clear karma and that is why they have been full of challenges. However, as hard and trying that they may be, you would not be expected to take on more than you were capable of handling.” (11)

Ker-On reminds us that “the calamities that befall you will quickly be cleared once we can start to openly reach out to you. Therefore take them into your stride knowing that they will be short lived, and you will be more than compensated for all of the troubles you have endured.” (12)

The spiritual hierarchy and Galactic Federation warn us that an economic collapse is inevitable, though it will be short-lived. It is necessary to clear the deadwood from positions of economic power and to complete much unfinished karma. Once having occurred, NESARA will be unveiled. Some of its provisions already have been implemented.

But how much remains to be done?

Chapter 8. Remaining Work

What remains to be done? Why has the process taken so long to get us to the starting gate?

Sheldan Nidle’s SHGF told us in February of this year that “the reason it has taken so long to get you to the starting gate [is that] numerous legal, financial, and monetary programs had to be approved by influential segments of the world community.

“Now this is done. The next step is the implementation of what has been agreed to and slowly but surely these stages are coming on line. What remains now is the trickier stuff.

“This ‘trickier stuff,’ however, is ready to manifest. Our Earth allies and we are jointly doing what is necessary to get things done.” (1)

Very seldom do the galactics and celestials discuss specifics of their, or their Earth allies’, operations. The SHGF offers a small amount of detail. One of the revelations is that most of the people at the top of the Illuminati power structure have been removed.

“Several sticking points keep frustrating [our Earth Allies]: These arise from the avarice, misplaced loyalties, and downright perversions that characterize many of those in the upper echelons of your political and economic institutions.

“Most of these warped individuals have been removed, and an environment conducive to the many urgent reforms and other sweeping changes to your reality is currently being created.

“Our Earth allies know at firsthand what a challenge their quest has been. Given the magnitude of the changes required and the intractability of the planetary conditions, they were looking at a very protracted and circuitous undertaking.

“Early on, a series of unique maneuvers was agreed upon. Within this equation was of course us. This constituted a balancing-act for them, in which they had to reconcile and meld the information we provided for them with the present Earth worldview.

“Adapting to the nature of the dark cabal and its daily operating procedures was central to our allies’ success. On top of this came the need to accommodate the deep changes being made to each one of you.

“Heaven had a plan, and soon our Earth allies and we had one too. We have combined these two into a master plan.” (2)

And what are we to do during this clean-up that the galactics say is underway, short though it may be and ending in NESARA as it will?

Atmos reassures us that “it is possible to live your life in the midst of the turmoil and yet feel free from the effect of the lower energies that are all around you.”

“Naturally if they directly affect you, it requires great concentration and dedication to the Light to stay out of reach of their impact upon your life. Your strength can come from knowing that whatever happens now or in the immediate future, it will be short lived.” (3)

SaLuSa advises remaining focused on our vision of what lies ahead.

“The Lightworkers, who have helped to project the vision of a new Earth and a new beginning for all life forms, are able to keep their heads above the waters that are sweeping the old away. They hold onto their vision knowing that it is already beginning to manifest upon Earth.

“Those who do not understand the reasons for what is happening are more prone to cling onto the old ways that in spite of the chaos have given them comfort. Some of course feel that they are safely out of harm’s way, and believe that no major changes will happen to them. ...

“These groups [will live] out this period with faith in their different beliefs, yet, as the changes become more apparent and are seen as beneficial to everyone, they will slowly be drawn together.” (4)

SaLuSa likens the Earth to a “Phoenix emerging from the ashes. You will take your opportunity to introduce a completely new way of working. New ideas will abound, and with our direct help you will be well on the way to establishing a more acceptable and free society.” (5)

He advises us that we need to switch now from a society that puts self-interest first to one that puts compassionate service to others first:

“Love is the key to everything, and when you can all put the needs of others first, everyone will have more than enough. It is a simple maxim that Man finds so hard to implement at this time.” (6)

The spiritual hierarchy and Galactic Federation tell us that the period of the economic clean-up will be short and advise us to remain outside the turmoil and focus instead on our vision of the approaching New Age.

Having heard the complete story from them, do they give us any idea of when NESARA will come?

Chapter 9. NESARA`s Unveiling

No matter how eager we are to know when NESARA will arrive, everyone among the 2012 Ascension Team of spirit teachers, ascended masters, celestials, and galactics, has kept the exact date under wraps. They offer us hints, glimpses, and suggestions but that is all.

Some who cannot bear the endless waiting have renounced “anticipation energy” (1) and applied themselves to useful lines of social endeavour and self-development.

There are many reasons for this secrecy on the 2012 Team’s part. One is the difficulty the Light would create for itself if it signalled its plans to the dark. The other is the risk it would bring to their Earth allies and other lightworkers. A third is the panic that it might put the financial community in if plans were known.

Matthew addressed this third reason, but what he says here could equally be said about all other areas of dark control – media, medicine, pharmaceuticals, education, resource industries, manufacturing, the military, etc.

“Conversion to a new economic foundation and operation is an enormous undertaking, and it cannot be publicly heralded that this is occurring as that would cause panic throughout the business world.

“The lighted souls who are leading the way know that panic would fuel the dark ones, who are clinging on for dear life; it is essential that [the] new leaders take judicious steps quietly to avoid creating a fear-filled populace.” (2)

We have seen that there have been fits and starts. Many people are tired of hearing messages that say “soon, soon.”

The galactics are aware of how stressed and tired we are. SaLuSa reassured us in February of 2009 that, despite the slow pace, the changes were definitely coming:

“Do not ... lose your belief that there are beneficial changes coming. Indeed, these are already emerging but it is clearly early days for you to yet see anything significant. You have set the energy of your vision of the new world into motion, and it will deliver the answers you seek about your future.” (3)

Regarding matters of timing, SaLuSa said in April of this year that “our vast knowledge of what is happening on Earth will ensure we know when it is best to make our moves.” (4)

A statement he made in June of this year was not well greeted when he said it, but it has proven true so far. He said that “we expect you to see signs of the changes before the year is out.”

However, he added, “the opportunities are like the tide moving in and out all of the time.” (5)

SaLuSa told us in September of this year that we will know quickly when events are happening: “Matters as we see them are bound to produce signs of where you are going, and those who are aware of their meaning will make sure it comes to the notice of the general public.” (6)

One of the signs of where we have gone is contained in the enthusiasm with which the 2012 team delivers its messages. I believe that we know we are getting close when their enthusiasm rises and I will try to show in the remainder of this article how their enthusiasm has indeed risen lately.

That enthusiasm is particularly noticeable in the SHGF’s messages since January of 2009. So I shall concentrate on them.

In the last chapter, we heard the SHGF tell us the “trickier stuff” remained to be accomplished. It was quite clear that we were not going to see NESARA in January of 2009, when that message came out.

But by the Fall of 2009, the SHGF report that the plans to move major global governments into their transitional phase have begun. Their tone sounds more upbeat than they have sounded in earlier messages.

In September of this year, they reported that “the new financial system is poised to manifest; indeed, certain aspects of this system have been operating freely without a great deal of interference from the dark.”

“Vast quantities of gold bullion have been moved secretly from place to place in preparation for the setting up of a new, global, gold and silver-based currency system. This new system is one of the topics to be revealed as part of the many startling public announcements.” (7)

The SHGF’s most current, October prediction is so optimistic that I am very much encouraged by reading it. It is the last message they’ve published before posting these essays. If enthusiasm says anything about nearness, then we must be very close to NESARA. The SHGF say:

“The plans to move several major global governments into their transitional modes are currently being implemented. Of these, the American corporation, run by the dark cabal, constitutes the primary stumbling block to profound global change, but this impediment will quite shortly be unblocked. Then a range of transformative measures immediately go into effect worldwide.

“These include: the new pro-Basil III banking system, a new hard currency system, a number of new central banks, and global debt forgiveness. All this will come under the rubric of a new multinational financial system which forms a much-needed stopgap between the present financial morass and a new comprehensive system of abundance.

“Eventually this abundance is to outgrow the need for money as a survival mechanism because new ‘miracle’ technologies will give each household the ability to provide its own food, clothing, and furniture. This eliminates the need for farms, factories, and other staples of your present economy. ...

“You are now at a point where the aforementioned transition needs to be properly put in motion, and we are ready to intervene even more massively than at present in order to effect this.

“As we speak, our Earth allies are wrapping up a number of agreements placing you at a point where these changes become possible. ...

“You are on the verge of wonders you can hardly conceive of!” (8)

Having said that, the SHGF reminds us how much depends on our breaking away from current paradigms of knowledge.

“Your successful survival mandates you changing your fundamental [social] paradigms. Your society is predicated on constant economic growth and open-ended exploitation of Mother Earth’s resources.

“This untenable modus operandi is to shift to a celebration of a ‘living Earth’ which ends the usage of Mother Earth’s natural resource. Instead, you are to expand your energy resource base and use your consequently revised technologies to replicate whatever your society may require.

“This means that you make a huge break away from your traditional theories of how your society sustains itself. You cease harvesting, mining, and cutting down Earth’s natural resources and plumb the knowledge contained in your expanding consciousness.

“You can then apply these discoveries to provide abundantly for yourselves and your societies, thus moving to first base on your path to your true galactic society.

“This process of transforming into a proto-galactic society is next on your agenda. The foundation for this is a wonderful prosperity, allowing you to become a society that revels in cooperation and to wash away conflict and needless hatred.

“This next step in your evolution as a conscious Being is most encouraging: You are ready to receive a great abundance, carry out a host of significant reforms, and learn that you are indeed not alone in this vast physical Creation.” (9)

All of this describes the period after NESARA is gifted to us and before First Contact occurs. After NESARA, we bring this planet out of its warring, famine-stricken, inequitable condition. We are then joined by our galactic brothers and sisters.

“All this can so transform your psyche that a mass first contact is then possible. This natural process of reuniting with your extended family segues, equally naturally, into reunion with your Inner Earth brethren. All these steps on your path back to full consciousness then bring you to the grand adventure of re-colonizing the other water planets of your solar system! ” (10)

We appear to be mounting the steps leading up to our new home, where peace and abundance reign. Given all that lies before us, I personally am able to wait the few remaining days, weeks, or even months before NESARA is announced.

Our original motivation was to examine what will happen in our near future given Cliff High’s web-bot prediction of an irrecoverable economic collapse on October 25, 2009. Our intention was to find out what the spiritual hierarchy and Galactic Federation have communicated about the coming times.

This then is their picture of the future opening before us as we speak. If Nidle’s sources, the SHGF, are correct, the 2012 Ascension Team is at this moment implementing the first stages of NESARA. If there is a total economic collapse, it will be followed “immediately” (11) by the announcement of the transformative measures of NESARA.

The NESARA operation has been complex and painstakingly slow. But, apparently, once it begins in earnest, it will move quickly. All the wait will prove worthwhile and terrestrial society will never again experience the crushing conditions of poverty or other forms of lack.

This knowledge that they have communicated to us, through channeled messages, through intuitives like David Wilcock, and through inspired scientific research paints a uniform picture of the unimaginably-wonderful times that, in my view, are almost immediately before us.
